association with the University of Waikato, ONZA (Orff New Zealand Aotearoa) is offering a six-day Level 3 workshop at the Hamilton Campus. This workshop will be taught by

Mary Helen Solomon (Florida, USA)
Christoph Maubach (University of Waikato)
Renee Morin (Auckland Graduate of Orff Institute Salzburg)
Jessica Shaw (Auckland. Recorder teacher)

The workshop, designed for teachers, caregivers, music practitioners and leaders of performing arts who have already completed Level 2 may be taken as a stand-alone Level 3 workshop. Successful completion of the workshop will result in ONZA Level 3 certification. ONZA workshops are designed to be comparable with Orff Schulwerk levels courses in other parts of the world. If you are interested in participating in this workshop, please indicate your interest as soon as possible to Millie Locke (Email milliel@vodafone.co.nz). This will assist in effective planning for this event.

This workshop also constitutes a component of the postgraduate paper at Waikato University: Orff Music Education: Theory and Practice 3 (ALED514). Enquiries re enrolling in the workshop as contribution to this paper should contact Professor Terry Locke, School of Education, PB 3105, Hamilton (E-mail: t.locke@waikato.ac.nz). The paper enrolment fee covers the workshop.

Enrolment in the workshop-only option can be made online at <http://orfnz.org> or by completing the form below, attaching a copy of your Level 2 Orff Schulwerk accreditation and sending to: Orff Workshop L3: Millie Locke, 39 First Avenue, Kingsland, Auckland 1021. Enrolment is secured by a $100 deposit with the balance of fees due as detailed below.
