In association with the University of Waikato, Orff New Zealand Aotearoa (ONZA) is offering a six-day, Level One workshop in Orff Schulwerk at the University of Waikato campus. The summer school will be led by Orff educators Christoph Maubach (University of Waikato), Renee Morin (recently returned from study at the Orff Institute, Salzburg) and Millie Locke (Classroom practitioner, Henderson Valley Primary School).

The workshop constitutes a module contributing to a postgraduate paper at the University: Orff Music Education: Theory and Practice I. It can also contribute to a Level 3, undergraduate paper (Directed Study) on the application of Orff practices to young people's learning in and through music. Enquiries re enrolling in the workshop as part of either of these papers need to be directed to Professor Terry Locke, School of Education, PB 3105, Hamilton (t.locke@waikato.ac.nz). Your course fee covers the cost of this workshop.

The workshop may be taken as a stand-alone Level 1 workshop, which, upon successful completion, entitles participants to certification in Level 1 Orff Schulwerk. This workshop has been designed to compare with levels of Orff Schulwerk training offered in other parts of the world.
