

A Taste of Orff-Schulwerk in Wellington, Term One 2015

For all teachers enthusiastic about the role music can play in education,
from preschool through to secondary school.

Orff New Zealand Association (ONZA) in collaboration with local music educational specialists is offering a unique day of workshops introducing the Orff-Schulwerk approach. If you would like to find out more about this wonderful approach that integrates music, movement, and language then join us for a day of inspiring workshops .

..

Saturday February 14th 2015

9am – 4.30pm

Eastern Hutt School

53 Kings Crescent

Lower Hutt, Wellington

$80.00 (Earlybird) / $100.00

-Morning Tea will be provided-

- + Orff Schulwerk workshops in saying, singing, moving, and playing Orff style instruments with Christoph Maubach from ONZA
- + Vocal warm ups and musical games with Dr Robert Legg from the New Zealand School of Music
- + Examples of classroom lessons with Priya Gain and Angela Campbell, Orff Schulwerk music teachers from Eastern Hutt School
- + African inspired drumming and songs with Lala Simpson, choir leader and dancer from Community Music Junction
- + Circle dancing with Liz Melchior, lecturer in Dance Education, Victoria University

-Enrolment Process-

Register for this one-day event online at <http://orffnz.org/event-registration?ee=60>

Or complete this form and post with a cheque to:

The Administrator, PO Box 10-0039, NSMC, Auckland 0745

N.B. Earlybird Registration available only until 27 January 2015

Full-Time Student $50.00

