"From Turquoise to Greenstone"

Digging for treasure in the world of Orff music and movement

Saturday 14 January 2017

9.30am - 3.30pm

Wairau Intermediate School

113 Becroft Drive, Forrest Hill, Auckland

Join us to explore poetry, songs, rhythms, dance, folklore and instrumental music for use in music classes with children ages 5-12 years. Starting with the American spiritual, "Rock a my Soul" we'll dig into sources from around the world. Come ready to move and bring your ukuleles and recorders if you have them.

Presenter: Mary Helen Solomon

Mary Helen is currently the Assistant Director of Choral Studies and Performing Arts Instructor at the Episcopal School of Jacksonville in Florida. She is also the lead teacher at the Orff Teacher Education Course at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. Mary Helen has written several music resources such as "Tropical Recorder", "The Little Christmas Book" and "Dance for the Children of One Earth".
