

ONZA Professional Development

Move, Say, Sing & Play

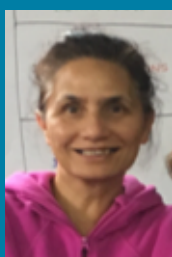

An ECE & Primary Teachers' Workshop

Using a bicultural approach to music and movement education, find ways to inspire and challenge your students using a wide range of singing games, vocal activities, songs, poems and movement activities to re-energise your classroom music, movement and literacy programme.

Saturday 16th Sept 2017

9.30am – 3.15pm

Harvest Centre
324 Malfroy Rd, Rotorua

Presenters

Maria Kapa brings an understanding of Kodaly, Orff and Te reo Māori to the creation of bicultural musical experiences. Millie Locke and Renée Morin bring many years experience as Orff-based educators and complement each other with different expertise in movement, music and language.

Registration

Non-members: $60
ONZA Members: $50
Full-time Student: $40

Register Online: <http://orffnz.org/workshops-events-list/workshops/>

For more information contact:
Millie Locke (Workshop Co-ordinator)
milliel@vodafone.co.nz ph: 021 643 846